 SUPPORTING ALASKAN FAMILIES IMPACTED BY CHILDHOOD CANCER

Katie's Handprint is an Alaskan organization who is helping Alaskan families. We recognize that the fight against childhood cancer is a challenge that the whole family goes through together, and we want to support families currently in that chapter of their lives.

Seeking medical treatment in Alaska adds additional challenges: traveling for treatments, or even relocating whole families into Anchorage or beyond. Katie's Handprint seeks to ease the burden of these additional finances so you can focus more on what is most important - your family.

Buying a home these days doesn't require a 20% down payment.

While 20% down was a standard for conventional loans, today's buyers have many other options. You may now qualify for a home loan with down payments ranging from 0% to 3.5%, leaving you with extra cash for the home appraisal, home inspection and closing costs.
